CLASS HISTORY

There have been six great events in the history of this world. The first was the appearance of Adam and Eve. The second was the rise of King Tut. The third was the death of Julius Caesar. The fourth was the crossing of the Atlantic by Columbus. The fifth was the reign of Joe Louis. And the sixth was the entrance of the Class of 1950 into the Uniontown High School.

In September, 1950, thirty-one meek, frightened Freshmen crept unhesitatingly through the halls of Uniontown High. What instruments of torture might be awaiting us we did not know; from the dungeon horrors of medieval England, to the guillotine of France, to the electric chair of modern America, we suspected and expected everything. Probably the most frightened of all were the class officers: President, Glen Hess; Vice-President, Betty Norton; Secretary of Treasurer, Lester Richards, and Reporter, Joan Typer.

During the second year it took the combined efforts of all our teachers and the Juniors and Seniors to keep us properly squelched. In our new wisdom we wanted to symbolize the revolt of modern youth, and it was during this revolt that some of the boys of our class began to discover that the girls in the class were human beings, and were interesting; and likewise, a few of the feminine members of our class discovered that a little smile is a dangerous thing. Even though this year was one of the most important in our class history, we had lost five of our students since the Freshman year. Class officers appeared as follows: President, Lester Richard; Vice-President, Joan Typer; Secretary of Treasurer, Mary Smith, and Reporter, Glen Tuggle.

We began our third year by the electing of new officers. They were: President, Bill Nuzum; Vice-President, Bill Grose; Secretary of Treasurer, Elaine Hartman, and Reporter, Joan Typer. In number we barely held our own, but in wisdom we became mental giants. We learned how to recite upon various subjects without advance preparation. We learned many successful excuses for avoiding home study and others for not having completed it. We became practiced in the art of finding reasons to be away from school, and other equally good arguments in favor of not making up the missing class work. We learned also that in union there is strength and that not more than one pupil should ever do a history lesson or complete a typing assignment. Our Junior year was also one with many new experiences—the first of which was the class play, "Sittin' Pretty," and the next big experience was the preparation of the Junior-Senior Banquet, the theme being "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

The Senior year is still very fresh in all your memories as it is in ours. The class officers were selected as follows: President, Bill Nuzum; Vice-President, Shirley Cowan; Secretary of Treasurer, Elaine Hartman, and Reporter, Lester Richard. One of the main events of the year was the Senior Play, which was "Hillbilly Weddin'." Then, of course, the Junior-Senior Banquet. By our Senior year there were only twenty to graduate. It would be very much in keeping to take count of stock and list the damage which has been wrought in our passage through the halls and classrooms of Uniontown High School. The last four years have been happy ones, with the aid of our teachers and principal. Whatever our success and future happiness, I am sure that each one of us will be able to look back on our days at Uniontown High School and say: "Those were the four happiest years of our life."

SENIOR WILL

We—the Seniors of 1954, being for the first and last time in a safe and sane mood—do therefore make, ordain, and publish this last will and testament to dispose of the property we have acquired during the last four years.

I, Joan Bruner, will my quiet ways to Beatrice Adamson and my graceful walk to Sylvia Heckman.

I, Shirley Cowan, will my ability to catch a boy friend to Janean Dixon, and my "shortness" to Karen Miller.

I, Gerald Davis, will Anita Wilson to be wooed, but not won, by Bill Bradbury, and my way with the coach to Paul Adamson.

I, Bob Eisenhower, will my smallness to Kathryn Bathel and my childish ways to Bertha Semler.

I, Bill Grose, will my getting finned to Leona Mason and my graceful dance to anyone who needs it.

I, Elaine Hartman, will my ability to get along with others to Audra Swisher, and my sweet disposition to Pat Sipe.

I, Jim Holt, will my nickname "Nick" to Max Reinecke and my maniac driving to Alice Tuggle.

I, Glen Hess, will my way with the women to Gene Christy and my silly ways to Corine Williams.

I, Kenneth Luker, will my turtleneck sweaters to Butch Grimes and my beat up drawing equipment to Don Spainhoward.

I, Marvin Mason, will my ability to study to Marie Mealman and my height to Clifford Munzert.

I, Margaret Murphy, will my basketball suit to Norma Colvin and my bookkeeping pad to Helen Mosier.

I, Bill Nuzum, will my job as president of the senior class to Scott Christy and my cowboy boots to Carme Martin.

I, Dan Ramsey, will my 1889 to whoever is man enough to take it and my whiskers to Jim Typer.

I, Lester Richard, will my "A" in Math to Johnny Brown, and my track abilities to Ronnie Taylor.

I, Bob Russell, will my dirty locker to Bernard Stine and my old test papers to Edwin Hartman.

I, Fred Steele, will my nickname "Iceman" to Jim Stine and my way with the teachers to Carol Tuggle.

I, Norman Stine, will my way with the women to Bill Bradbury and my Charles Atlas build to Jerry Russell.

I, Mary Smith, will my pony tail to Daisy McCollum and my funny laugh to Florence Colvin.

I, Glen Tuggle, will my ability to throw the shotput to Don Hunziker and my coon hounds to Charlene George.

I, Joan Typer, will my old boy friends to Nancy Holt and my long hair to Floyd Dalton.

We leave our ability to get into trouble, the headaches of putting out the annual and newspaper, and senior privileges to the juniors. To the rest of the school we leave our broken pencils, chewed gum, poor grades, and dirty lockers. To Mr. Wilson and the faculty, we just leave.

SENIOR PROPHECY

While looking at my tea leaves, I saw a glimpse of the Senior Class in 1964. Their future appears as follows:

Seated by President Eisenhower's side is Joan Bruner taking dictation rapidly.

Einstein the second, Jack Colvin, is working up a formula for removing stars from Hollywood.

Our friend, Shirley Cowan, is attending college at Horsehair Junction, studying to be a hog caller.

"Trophy Boy," known to you as Gerald Davis, is now trying to follow Clyde Lovellette's steps.

"Brain Boy," Bob Eisenhower, is now demonstrating Cadillacs for the John Deere Implement Company.

Bill Grose is now working as the new Moran Marshall. He is really laying down the law on Wednesday nights, especially to U.H.S.

Elaine Hartman is now married to Bobbie Todd and running a saw mill, with their fifteen kids helping them.

Jim Holt is now the "speed demon" of Indianapolis. He has already passed Jimmy Lynch with his dare-devil antics.

One of the new stars in Hollywood is Glen Hess, who is now portraying the part of "The Wolf-Man."

Kenneth Luker is now the bouncer at "Katie's Third Street Drive Inn." He was last seen fishing on the banks of Buck Run.

"Mason, The Great," Marvin Mason, is trying for the world's greatest mountain climber.

Margaret Murphy is hunting rabbits and snipes on the Sahara Desert. She was last seen hunting for water.

Bill Nuzum is operating "The Blue Velvet" night club in New York. His waitress is Marilyn Monroe.

Dan Ramsey is an escaped prisoner from Alcatraz. He was sent up for breaking the law at Moran, Kansas. He is very dangerous.

The new professor at Yale is Lester Richard. He specializes in Child Psychology.

Bob Russell is raising white mice in Beverly Hills, California. He has reported two mice missing from his experiment laboratory.

Fred Steele is the new ice man for the Eskimos. Last report from him was that his ice was melting.

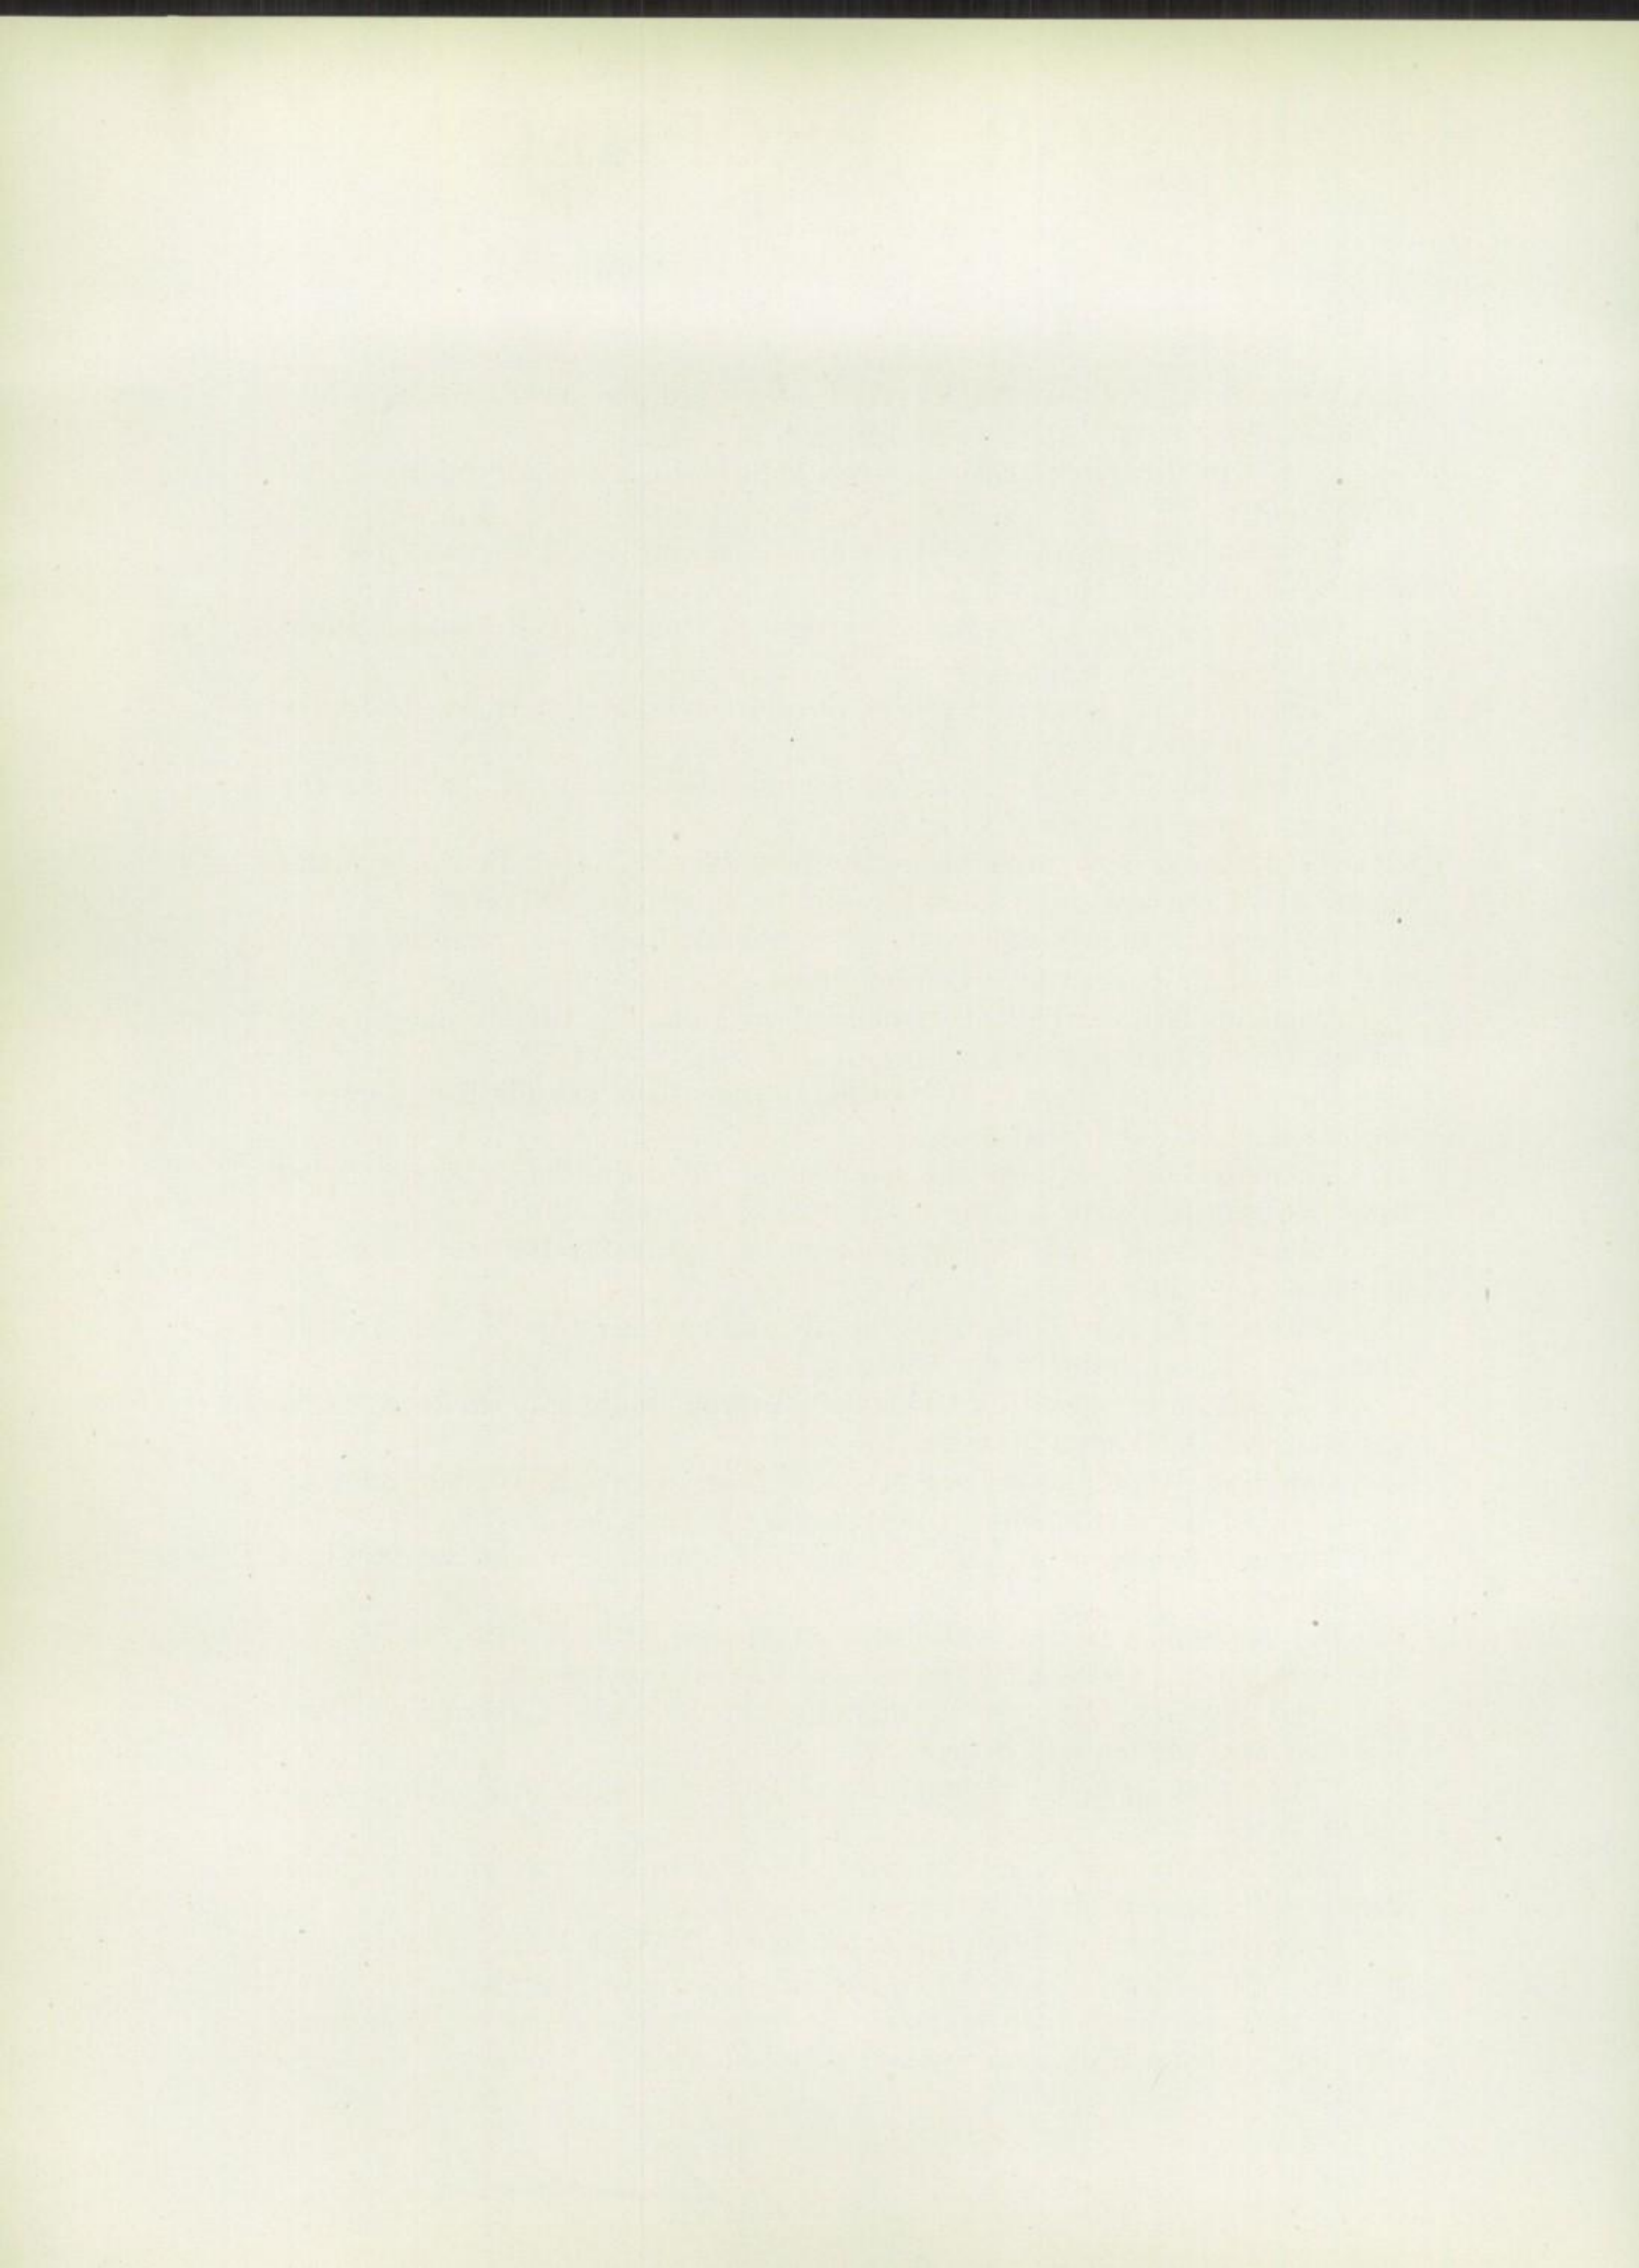

"The Great Caruso," Norman Stine, is now touring in England, singing his latest hits.

Mary Smith now holds the title of the new heavyweight champion. She recently beat Mildred Burke.

Glen Tuggle is now holding top honors at West Point. They report he flew a jet around the world twelve times without stopping.

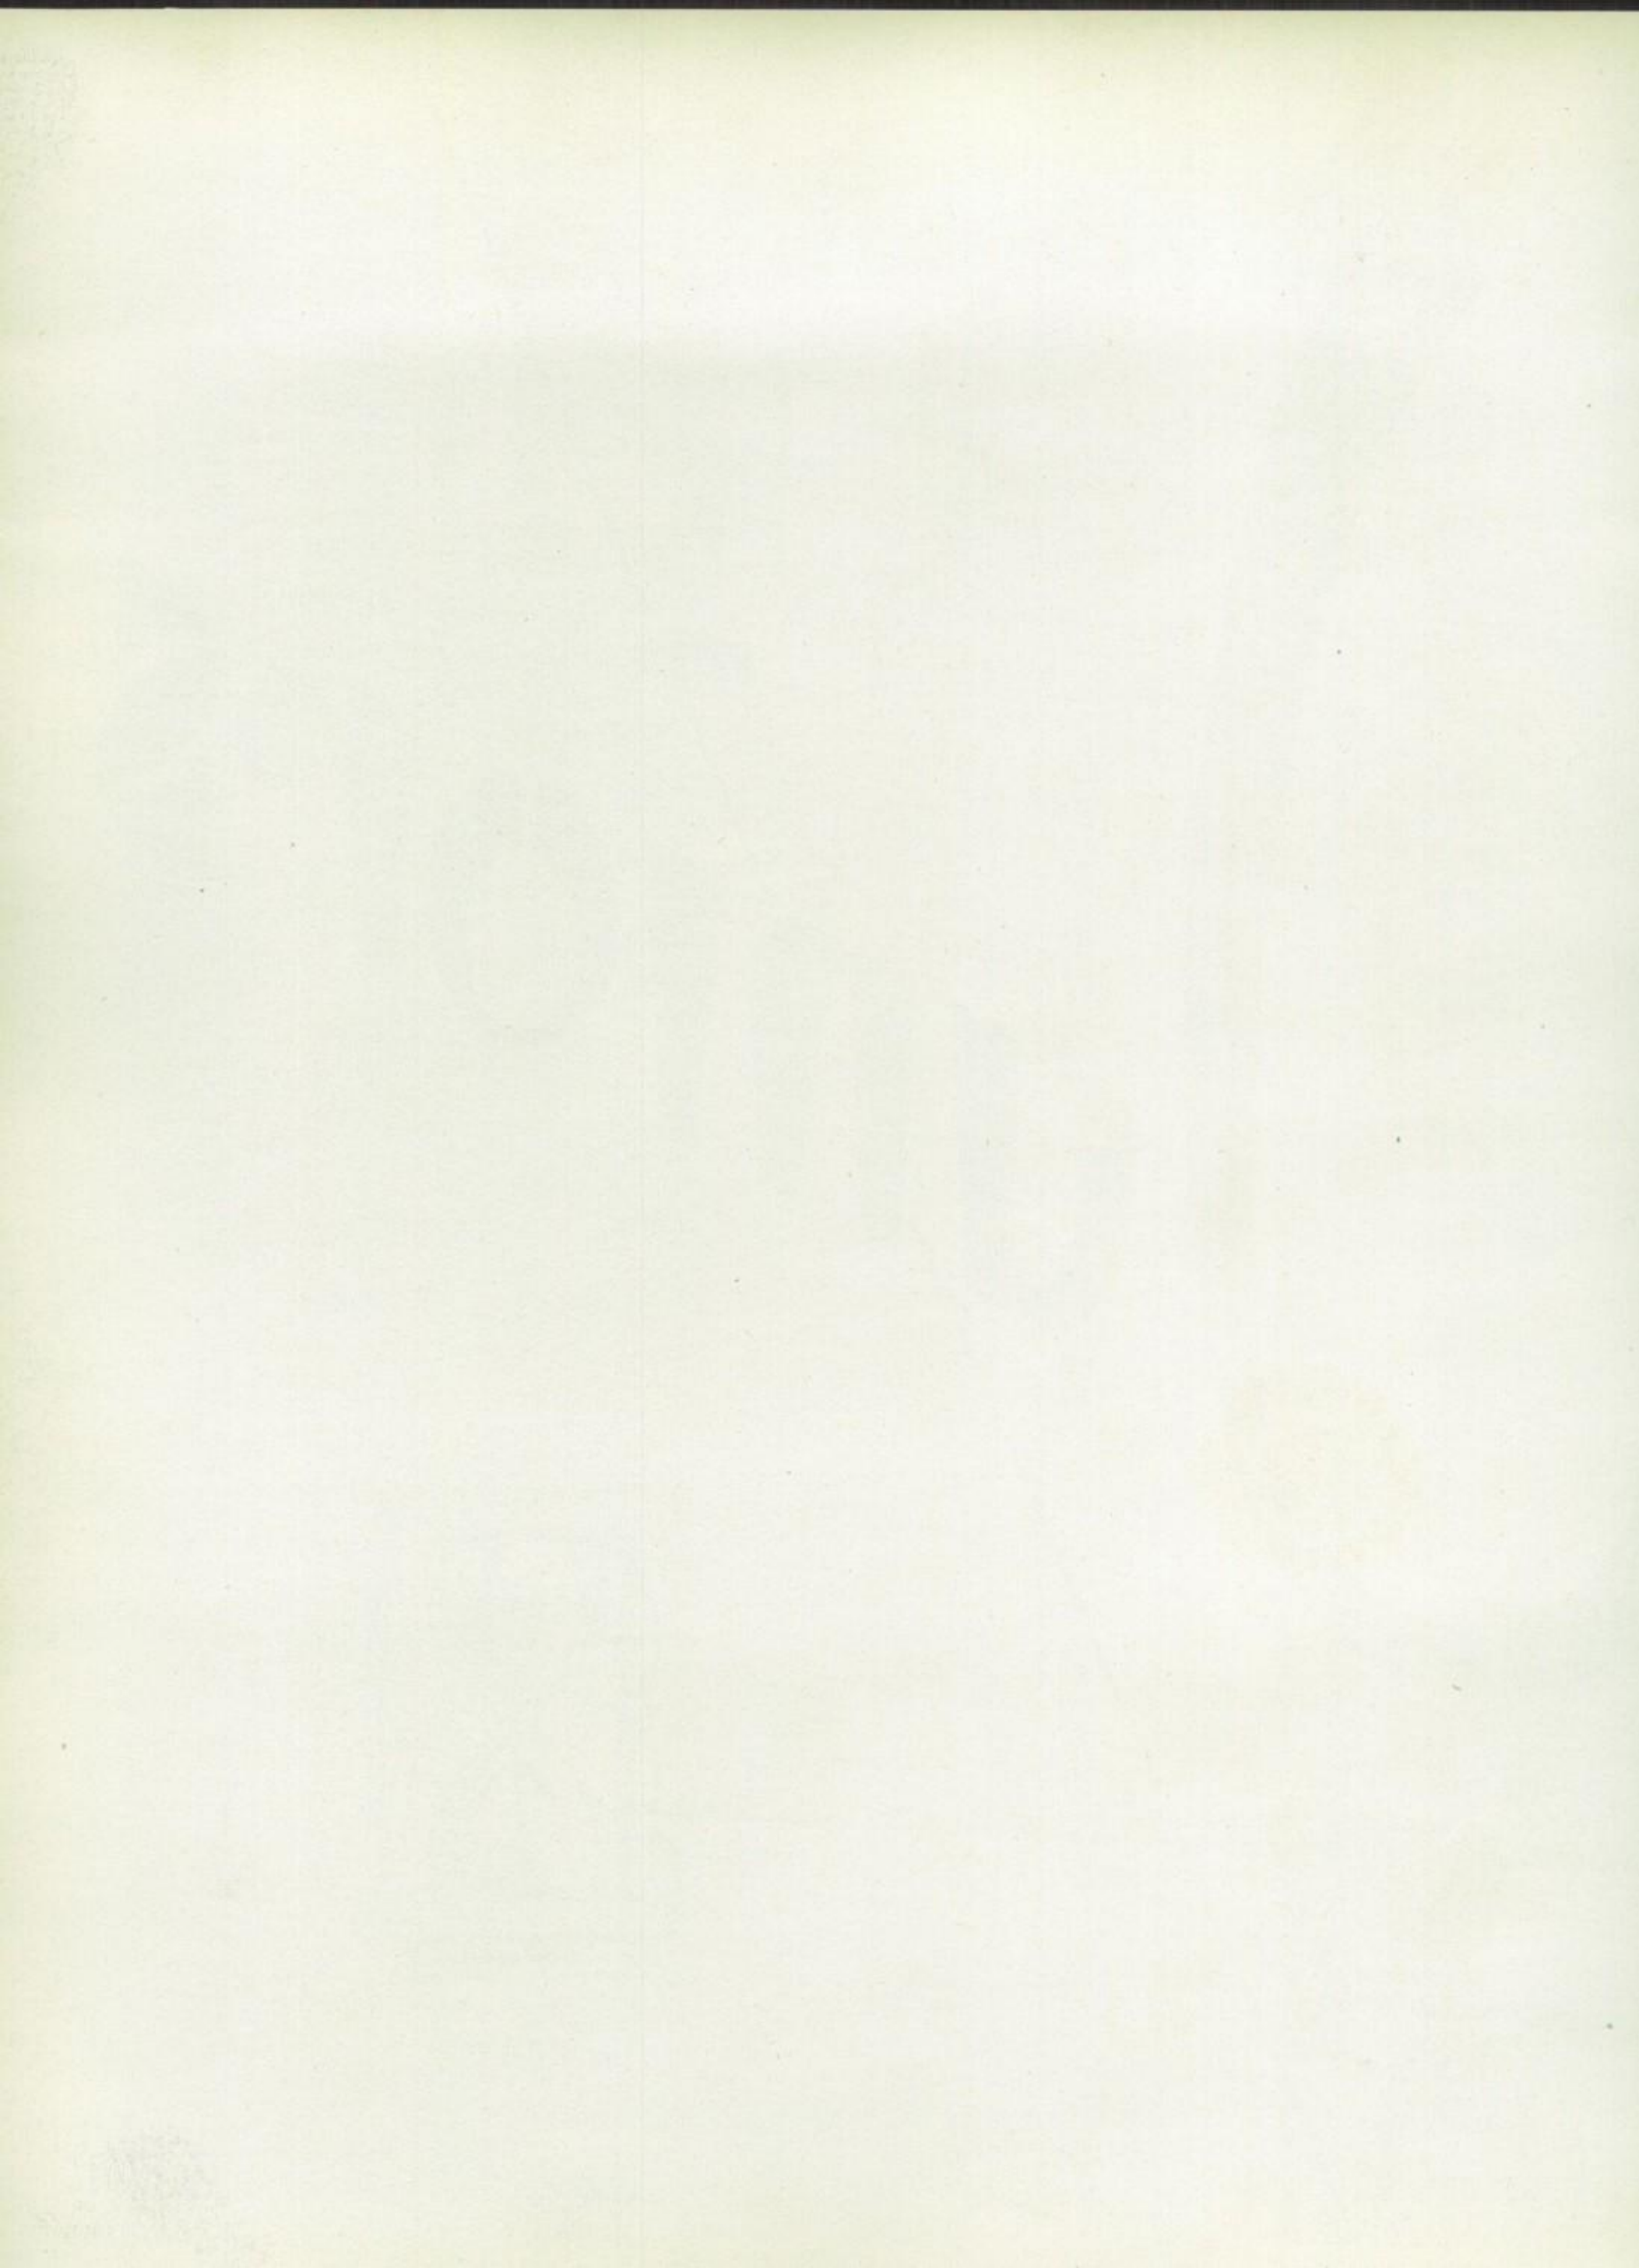

Joan Typer, now Joan Mollohan, is living in the slums of Petersburg with her husband, Bob, and their twenty-two kids.
